

NOTES:

1. The existing and proposed use does not generate electromagnetic interference to any sensitive receptor. Interference with the Harvard-Smithsonian radio telescope (1400-1720 MHz) is specifically prohibited.
2. The existing and proposed use does not cause pronounced, multiple patterns of noise or vibration nuisance to, or interfere with, any sensitive receptor.
3. A DEP air quality permit is not required.

