

WASTE PREVENTION

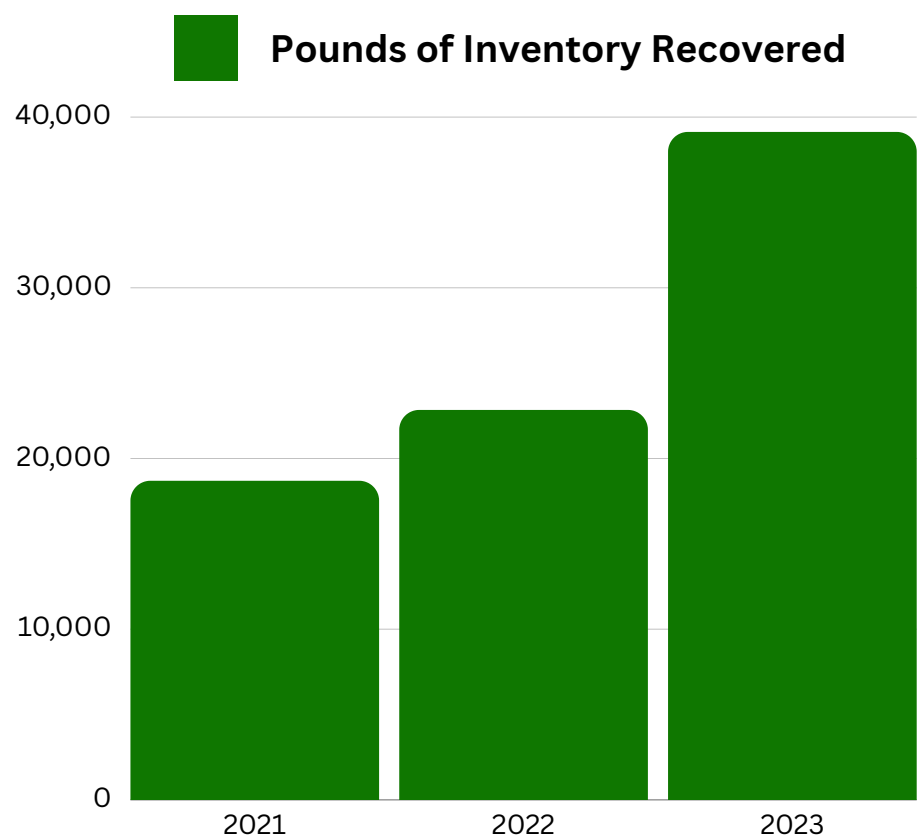

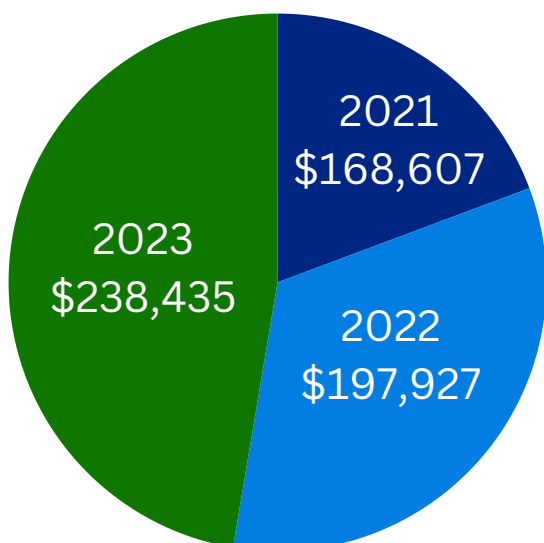

The Great Exchange provides an alternative solution for valuable resources that commercial, industrial, and service establishments cannot use internally and would otherwise be treated as trash.

- Preserved resources worth an estimated $238,435
- Recovered furniture (18,606 lbs), operational items (11,624 lbs), office supplies (6,336 lbs), classroom and creative materials (2,565 lbs)
- Collected items from offices, schools, medical facilities, retail entities in 20 communities
- Joined forces with a construction firm, 2 corporate moving companies and 3 universities to re-home abandoned resources

Annual Growth

Estimated Retail Value of Recovered Resources

COMMUNITY IMPACT

The Great Exchange makes office classroom and creative materials, office supplies, janitorial products, furniture and fixtures, and more available to schools, municipalities, nonprofits and small businesses with significant discounts so they can invest more in their programs and services.

- Provided customers an estimated $63,000 in savings
- Attracted shoppers from 80 different communities across Massachusetts and beyond
- Benefited schools (40%), businesses (22%), municipalities (21%), nonprofits (17%)
- Donated 8,648 pounds of recovered medical supplies and equipment to the nonprofit Partners for World Health.

Annual Growth

Estimated Savings Provided

